But first, a hypothetical . . .

• A new board member, ”Holly”, was recently appointed to the board and wants to make it so that the school is not littered with political ads and wants to add that to policy.

• What policy will Holly change? How will Holly effect this change? How will Holly enforce this change?
School District Policy

❖ What is it? The Board’s Rules.

❖ How do you change it? BGB- discuss the policy at an open meeting and vote as a board to change it.

❖ Why should board members care?

Because it is the only “hard” mechanism board members have to effect change in their role. (I mean you should lead by example in all things but if you want to effect change you gotta change the law).
School District Policy – What is it?

❖ Principles adopted by the Governing Board to chart a course of action

❖ The Board’s principal job:
  ❖ 15-341(A)(1) The Governing Board shall:

❖ “Prescribe and enforce policies and procedures to govern the schools that are non inconsistent with the laws or rules prescribed by the state board of education.”
Where does Authority of Board come from?

❖ Answer: STATUTE (AKA the Arizona Legislature)
❖ 15-421(A) “the governing body of a school district shall be a governing board.”

❖ The Board’s principal job:
   ❖ 15-341(A)(1) The Governing Board shall:
     ❖ “Prescribe and enforce policies and procedures to govern the schools that are not inconsistent with the laws or rules prescribed by the state board of education.”
School District Policy – How are Governing Board’s Policy powers limited?

- Limited by: Statute
  - School Districts have “only such powers as are granted to them by the [Legislature].” Tucson Unified School District No. 1 v. Tucson Educ. Ass’n, 155 Ariz. 441 (Ap. 1987)
  - AND, a School Board “can exercise only those powers which are expressly or impliedly granted.” (Id.)

- Limited by: Law

    - “Prescribe and enforce policies and procedures to govern the schools that are not inconsistent with the laws or rules prescribed by the state board of education.”
